

CME Group Foundation Scholars Program

We are pleased to announce the CME Group Foundation Scholars Program for 2022-23. Students will receive a scholarship of up to $20,000, renewable for three years. The program is open to low-income, Black and LatinX students majoring in accounting, finance, computer science, information technology, math, cyber security, data science, statistics or financial engineering.

Application will open on February 16, 2022.
The deadline to apply
is April 4, 2022.

The CME Group Foundation Scholars program is open to rising sophomores, juniors and seniors. For university partners with 4+1 programs (bachelor's degree in a technical field and a one-year master's in finance), students can apply for three years of support in junior, senior and masters years.

CME Group Foundation Scholars will attend a Market Education Day (may be virtual) in August 2022 to learn about CME Group, as well as the financial services industry and summer internships.

To learn more and apply, visit learnmore.scholarsapply.org/cme-scholars

We partner with schools committed to equity in attainment, closing the graduation rate gap for low-income and underrepresented minority students.

CME Group Foundation's partner schools in 2022 will be:

- DePaul University
- Illinois Institute of Technology
- Loyola University Chicago
- National Louis University
- Northern Illinois University
- Southern Illinois University-Carbondale
- Stevens Institute of Technology (New Jersey)
- St. Xavier University
- University of Illinois-Chicago
- University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
- Wilbur Wright College-Chicago*

* Students must be currently enrolled in their second year at Wright College and planning to attend one of the approved four-year colleges listed above for their Junior and Senior years.

