

FAQs

Got Questions? We've got answers.

I've already received an undergraduate degree - can I still apply to the Pilgrim's Tomorrow Fund?

No, the Pilgrim's Tomorrow Fund is for employees or children of employees pursuing their first undergraduate degree.

I'm logged into my Scholarship America account - how do I find the Pilgrim's Tomorrow Fund Application?

After logging into your Scholarship America account, the program will appear on your Scholarship page.

Note: Please ensure your account information meets the program's eligibility requirements. These requirements can be found on the Pilgrim's Tomorrow Fund page here: apply/pilarims.

I don't have the exact school/fees cost for my application - what should I put?

This portion of your application does not have to be exact - an estimate of cost/fees can be accepted for your application.

What are the requirements for the essay portion of the application?

Your essay should include a statement for each of our 7 values. Each statement should include your plan to uphold each value with your educational and career goals and objectives. This portion of your application should be concise and 1,000 characters.

Visit our website to see more on our values: Pilarim's - About Us.

What documents are required to be uploaded as part of my application?

A current, complete transcript of grades including the following information:

- Student name
- School name
- Grades
- Credit hours for each course and term in which each course was taken

The first two pages of the employee's most recently filed Form 1040 (Please black out SSN)

One online recommendation form must be submitted on your behalf no later than March 5th, 2026 3:00 PM Central Time.

Note: Grade reports are not accepted. If you are providing SAT or ACT test scores, and those scores are not listed on your high school transcript, you will need to upload a copy of your test score report(s) separately. If you are uploading a college transcript, those scores are not required.

Your application is not complete unless all required materials are submitted electronically.
