Frequently Asked Questions

Do I have to be employed at Ross or dd's DISCOUNTS for me (or my dependent) to qualify for the renewal award?

Yes, you must be a current Associate and in good standing with Ross or dd's DISCOUNTS for you or your dependents to qualify for renewal.

How is "good standing" defined?

For non-exempt (hourly) Associates: You have not received a corrective action or performance development plan in the last 6 months (as of 3/15/24). For exempt (salaried) Associates: You have not received a corrective action or performance development plan in the last 12 months (as of 3/15/24).

If I will reach my one year of employment after 3/15/24, but in time for the new academic year - September 2024 - can I apply this year for the scholarship?

No, you must have completed 1 full year of employment by the application deadline of 3/15/24. If you have not completed one full year of employment by 3/15/24, you are encouraged to apply next year.

If I don't receive a scholarship this year, can I reapply next year?

Yes, there is no limit to the number of times an applicant may reapply.

If I receive a scholarship this year, is it automatically renewed next year?

No, renewals are not automatic. You will receive a renewal application sent directly from Scholarship America. You must meet the renewal requirements for your scholarship to be renewed.

When will applicants be notified if they have received an award?

Scholarship America will notify the student recipients in the summer, typically by July; non-recipients will be notified at the same time.

Who decides who will receive the scholarships?

The selection of recipients is made by Scholarship America based on criteria provided by Ross Stores, Inc. No Ross or dd's DISCOUNTS Associate plays a part in the selection.

Is a Spanish version of the application guidelines available?

Yes, the guidelines for the application are available in Spanish on the website.
